Gargoyle's Huge Centennial Celebration

Gargoyle's First 100th celebration keeps on growing! We will have special exhibits in the Bentley Historical Library and the Harlan Hatcher Graduate Library.

Eight large wall cases in the Grad Library foyer are now filled with reproductions of 84 Gargoyle covers & the best of Garg for 100 years. Two of the covers are enlarged to three feet by four feet. These were produced in the University of Wisconsin Bio-Tech lab on their latest super printer & were featured in Your Editor's exhibit in Madison '08. The Grad Library Garg Exhibit opened Aug. 1 & will be in place through Oct 25. Special GARGAlum thanks to former Student Publications Manager Sam Offen for his terrific assistance on this exhibit.

Gargoyle's Friend at The Bentley is at work on a salute to Gargoyle's First 100th scheduled for Sept. 1 through Dec. 20. Marilyn McNitt produced the fabulous exhibit for Gargoyle's 90th after which she said: "To really do a full Gargoyle exhibit we need the Crisler Arena!" We know Marilyn will do a superb job for Gargoyle's First 100th!

News from GARGAlums

David Cornwell '62 sends along fabulous full-color artwork. One of our all-time favorite Garg Cornwells is the three-page pull-out of the Michigan Stadium including fans holding banner: "Put the M back in other." Look for it in the Garg exhibit in the Grad Library.

David Giltrow '61 acquires spectacular LIFE Mag photog Paul Shuster shot of Marilyn Monroe & Arthur Miller '38. Giltrow donating this to UM Bentley Historical Library Garg Collection & said: "I think what makes this appropriate as a Gargoyle-related image is that Miller—that much respected, award winning writer/playwright—is looking at his legendary trophy wife with some anxiety, some sense of 'Am I really married to this exceptional female?'"

George Quick '38 sends letter full of great details on Arthur Miller '38. George published Miller's first works in Gargoyle. "I'll see you in Ann Arbor October 23!"

Steve Jarczak '02 goes Prime Time on MyNetworkTV July 7 The 2009 Hero Awards. "That's right, I've written another random awards show. But this time I produced three of the hero story packages, which means that unlike my witty presenter banter, they won't all be edited out for time," Steve reports, adding that during filming of one segment in Oklahoma: "I got the opportunity to stay by myself in a haunted Bed & Breakfast."

Adriana Yugovich '99 seen at San Diego Comic Con.

Gil Borman '81 signs up for Garg's First 100th!

David Kessel '54 e-mails: "I'm moving now from NW Wyoming to Washington DC to review some grant proposals, then eventually on to London. Wyoming turns out to have best scenery I have seen over the past several years." Also buys huge stuffed bear in Moose, Wyoming.

Gwen Grossman Sarko '72 is proud first-time Grandma to Shira Lily Sarko born May 14.

Doris Ann Smith '47 tells us in telephone call she is "refining thoughts" on stamp for Garg's First 100th.

Ann Arbor News Bids Farewell
